

Beware Fraudulent Emails

It has come to our attention that a number of our sponsors and exhibitors have been receiving fraudulent emails in respect of some Arena International events.

These emails do not originate from Arena International, or our parent company GlobalData Plc and we have no responsibility for them.

These emails purport to offer event attendee lists for a fee. Please do not click on any link within the email or attempt to contact any telephone numbers or other contact details within the emails.

In the interest of ensuring you do not pay for a non-existent or falsified product, please be aware that only Arena International will provide you with the event attendee list and you will not pay additionally for the list; it is included in any sponsorship or exhibition fee you have already paid.

If you are contacted by anyone offering this list, please do not respond - contact us so we may manage the issue through the appropriate legal channels.

If in doubt, please do not hesitate to contact your representative at Arena International or GlobalData.
